Commitment to safeguarding children and young people

At the Rabbinical College of Australia & New Zealand, we believe children who come to our College should ALWAYS:

- feel comfortable
- be cared for
- feel safe and be safe.

Everyone who works here does their best to make sure children are protected from any harm.

It is not okay for anyone to hurt your feelings or your body.

No one should behave in a way that makes you feel unsafe or afraid, including anyone in your family, anyone at this College, or anywhere else in the community.

It is okay for you to say NO to an adult if they ask you to do something that makes you feel unsafe or uncomfortable.

It is always okay to tell us if you ever feel unsafe or uncomfortable, or if you are unhappy with the way you are being treated, or if you have been hurt. We will listen to you and act to help you. Tell any staff member or a parent.

Adults at school must listen to you about what makes you feel safe, and respond to protect you if someone hurts you or makes you feel unsafe.

If you suspect harm to any other child or young person, please report it, even if you are not sure.
